Participating Parishioner Reduced Tuition Rate

Families that participate and support the life of our parish can benefit from the generosity of all our parishioners. We offer a reduced tuition rate, made possible because of the financial gifts we receive at Mass each week. Up to 40 cents of every dollar supports Catholic education.

Qualifying parishioners are those who attend Mass faithfully every weekend, participate in parish life and support the parish with regular discernible financial gifts. Participation will be verified semi-annually with parish records.

This family does does not qualify for the reduced tuition rate to receive tuition subsidy from St. Mary Parish in Woodstock.
